3 WAYS TO CELEBRATE AND ENJOY NATIONAL PARKS THIS SPRING

From the geysers of Yellowstone to the lush forests of the Great Smoky Mountains, the country's more than 400 National Parks are a national treasure. Here are three ways to celebrate and enjoy the parks this spring:

1. Celebrate National Park Week happening April 19 to April 27. Entrance fees will be waived on April 19 and the National Park Service parks, programs and partners will host events and activities all week. Follow National Park Week on social media and join the conversation online, or share your experiences, using #NationalParkWeek.

2. Listen to "My Park Story." On this podcast, which is hosted by the National Park Service, people share their unique connections to the parks and the National Park Service in their communities.

3. Help preserve the beauty, natural environments and recreational opportunities that the National Parks provide by supporting organizations like the Sierra Club and the National Parks Conservation Association, which are working to guard against the many threats the parks are currently facing.

MUSIC DIRECTOR CARL ST. CLAIR PACIFIC LEADS PACIFIC SYMPHONY IN THREE SEMI-STAGED PERFORMANCES OF WAGNER'S "DAS RHEINGOLD" APRIL 10, 13 AND 15

Music Director Carl St. Clair

Under the baton of Music Director Carl St. Clair—one of today's foremost Wagner interpreters—audiences can experience the raw power and gripping narrative of Richard Wagner's majestic opera, performed for the first time by Pacific Symphony. These three performances (April 10, 13, and 15) mark a landmark moment in Pacific Symphony's history and are a must-see in St. Clair's final season after 35 years of artistic leadership.

The first of four operas in Wagner's iconic "Ring" Cycle, "Das Rheingold"—whose story influenced J. R. R. Tolkien's "The Lord of the Rings" books—will be semi-staged with orchestra, world-class singers, staging, video elements, costumes and props. "Das Rheingold" will be sung in German with English supertitles.

World-Class Conducting

St. Clair conducted the entire four-opera, 15-hour "Ring" Cycle—which he considers one of his most memorable career highlights—to critical acclaim as general music director and chief conductor of the German National Theatre and Staatskapelle Weimar (2005-08). As the first non-European to hold the position, the role also gave him the distinction of simultaneously leading one of the newest orchestras in America (Pacific Symphony) and one of the oldest in Europe. Now, for the first time, Pacific

Symphony audiences will have the opportunity to immerse themselves in St. Clair's interpretation of the first part of this monumental cycle, as the orchestra continues to bring opera to Orange County since launching the "Opera and Vocals" initiative in the 2011-12 season.

"It's a major step for Pacific Symphony, for every orchestra or opera company, to mount any of 'The Ring' operas, and I'm ecstatic that we get to share this with our audiences during my final season as music director," said St. Clair. "'The Ring' changed the course of music history like few other events had. We've performed Wagner's symphonies and concertos before, but this work supersedes his other works in magnitude, scope and influence."

A Mysterious and Epic Tale

Wagner spent a quarter-century (1848-1876) crafting "The Ring" operas, drawing inspiration from Norse mythology and German heroic legends. His revolutionary use of leitmotifs—more than 150 recurring themes—binds music to character, emotion and fate. From the opera's first note—an E-flat drone in the double bass—"Das Rheingold" propels audiences into a gripping mythic universe filled with Rhine maidens, feuding gods, a stolen ring of immense power, and the inexorable consequences of greed. Complete with gods, Rhinemaidens, dwarfs, a beautiful river, freshwater mermaids, an evil troll who forsakes love for power in the form of a golden ring, flawed feuding gods who resort to dirty tricks to get what they want, golden apples of eternal youth, lovesick giants, murder, a glistening castle in the sky, and lots more, this epic story is sure to captivate both new and experienced opera-goers.

"I hope that once our audiences experience 'Das Rheingold,' they will be like me, and become infatuated with the music, the mystery and the magic of this epic work," continued St. Clair. "Maybe some will even become like the Wagner Fanatikers, a fan group who follow the opera all over the world, because once it gets in your system, it's like a great book series; it's hard to put down."

A Cast of Characters

Presenting a cast of more than a dozen characters, "Das Rheingold" explores the timeless themes of greed, power, love, and the consequences of greed as the story of the Nibelung dwarf Alberich's stolen Rhine gold (gold ring) unfolds. The protagonist Wotan—the king of the gods—is sung by renowned bass-baritone Kyle Albertson, who has sung the role multiple times across the country. The story continues when Wotan vies with Alberich to get the ring back in his possession, thus granting supreme power. A tall, majestic and palpable presence on stage, Alberich is sung by Canadian bass-baritone Nathan Berg.

Setting the Stage

"Das Rheingold" takes place Thursday, April 10 and Tuesday, April 15 at 8 p.m., and Sunday, April 13 at 2 p.m. in the Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall. All three performances include a preview talk with KUSC midday host Alan Chapman at 7 p.m. (and at 1 p.m. for the Sunday performance). This concert is part of the 2024-25 Classical Season and is sponsored by the Hal and Jeanette Segerstrom Family Foundation. Tickets are $30-$251. For more information or to purchase tickets, call (714) 755-5799 or visit pacificsymphony.org.

WAGNER: Das Rheingold

Semi-staged opera In German with English supertitles

Gods, Rhine mermaids, and dwarves... oh my! Step into the mythical world of Wagner's first opera in the iconic Ring Cycle whose story influenced Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings and whose music inspired John Williams' iconic soundtrack to Star Wars. Under the baton of Music Director Carl St. Clair—a leading Wagnerian who conducted the entire 15-hour Ring Cycle in Weimar!—Pacific Symphony invites you to experience the raw power and gripping narrative of this mythic prologue, where the stakes are as high as the heavens and as deep as the Rhine itself.

MISSION VIEJO AND THE NADADORES TO HOST U.S. OLYMPIC TEAM

USA Diving has announced a partnership with the City of Mission Viejo and Mission Viejo Nadadores Diving Team to hold a pre-Olympic Games training camp just prior to the 2028 Olympic Games. The U.S. team will fine tune its training at the Marguerite Aquatics Complex before heading to Los Angeles to compete in the XXXIV Olympiad.

“Mission Viejo has a long-standing tradition with the Olympic movement,” said Mission Viejo Mayor Bob Ruesch. “As a host city of the bike races in the 1984 LA Olympics to our participation in LA 2028, Mission Viejo and its residents embrace the excitement of being a part of Olympic competition. We symbolize this spirit with an Olympic Torch prominently placed on the city seal. We will be excited to host USA Diving for the 2028 Olympic Team training camp in Mission Viejo.”

“USA Diving is excited to partner with the City of Mission Viejo and the Mission Viejo Nadadores to host our 2028 pre-Olympic Games camp,” said USA Diving President Lee Michaud. “Mission Viejo has a deep history of excellence in diving, and its world-class facilities, supportive community, and ideal training environment make it the perfect location for our athletes to prepare for the Olympic Games. We look forward to building on this partnership and creating an unforgettable training experience on the road to Los Angeles 2028.”

“This opportunity is déjà vu for me,”

said Michele Mitchell, Ph.D., two-time Olympic silver medalist and Executive Director of the Nadadores. “In 1984, the U.S. Olympic diving team participated in its pre-Games training at the Marguerite Aquatics Complex. The anticipation of the Games was electric, and the community welcomed us and shared in the excitement and patriotism. We are so happy to now be able to offer that same feeling of hope and encouragement to the 2028 diving team.”

Taste of Wine & Food

By Frank Mangio & Rico Cassoni

STAG'S LEAP WINE CELLARS WINEMAKER DINNER SHINES

Story and photos by Rico Cassoni

Last June, I had the pleasure of touring Stag's Leap Wine Cellars in Napa Valley with Trade Coordinator Patrick Reilly and Winemaker Marcus Notaro, courtesy of Antinori Director of Luxury Accounts and Education-West Silvio Di Silvio, who arranged the visit. I tasted through an all-star lineup that included Artemis, FAY, S.L.V., and CASK 23. Fast forward to March 2024, and I was thrilled to reconnect with Marcus and see Silvio at The Butcher Shop's sold-out 86 person Stag's Leap Winemaker Dinner, hosted by Sal Ercolano. During comments, Silvio shared his gratitude to Ercolano for serving Antinori wines in his restaurants for over 20 years. It was exciting to pair Executive Chef Brian Gist's five-course menu with Stag's Leap's prestigious wines.

Our evening began with a vibrant Shrimp and Scallop Ceviche layered with pickled red onions served atop a blue corn tostada garnished with avocado crema. The dish had a refreshing brightness and paired well with the 2022 Stag's Leap Napa Valley Sauvignon Blanc Aveta. I picked up citrus and floral notes on the nose, with guava and pineapple on the palate providing an energetic match for the seafood. The crisp, tropical profile cleansed the palate while enhancing the sweetness and spice of the ceviche.

Next came the Bib Lettuce Wedge Salad, a refreshing and artful plate of crisp bib lettuce, roasted cauliflower, and crumbled feta cheese, all tied together with a lemon basil dressing. This course was beautifully matched with the 2023 Stag's Leap Napa Valley Chardonnay Karia. The nose opened with notes of lemon, lime, and cantaloupe, while the palate offered stone fruit, juicy apple, and melon flavors with a soft, creamy finish accented by a hint of vanilla. The lightly oaked Chardonnay was bright and crisp.

The third course was a standout Braised Beef Short Rib, plated with creamy parsnip purée, roasted Brussels sprouts, and crispy fried onions. The fork-tender short rib was rich and flavorful, balanced by the sweetness of the parsnip and the earthiness of the Brussels sprouts. The 2021 Stag's Leap Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon Artemis provided layered dark fruit notes, baking spice, and firm structure that stood up to the hearty dish. With Antinori's purchase of Stag's Leap in 2023, Artemis 2023 and forward vintages will be 100% Cabernet Sauvignon estate fruit sourced from Antinori Napa Valley.

For the main course, Chef Gist served Hardwood Grilled Prime New York Strip with rosemary demi-glace, seared polenta, a roasted cipollini onion, and grilled asparagus. The polenta was golden on the outside and creamy on the inside, offering a wonderful contrast in textures. The steak itself was grilled perfectly to medium rare. The rosemary demi added an aromatic richness that married well with the 2020 Stag's Leap Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon Fay. One of Napa Valley's most historic Cabernet Sauvignon sites, the FAY vineyard was first planted in 1961 by Nathan Fay. The 2021 vintage, shaped by a long, cool growing season with no major heat spikes, produced a wine with bright red fruit, fine-grained tannins, and a silky, rich finish. Aging for 21 months in 80% new French oak brought finesse and polish to the wine, allowing it to both complement and elevate the dish. Marcus commented, "The 2021 Fay will have a long life and can be stored for 10

Stag's Leap Wine Cellars Winemaker, Marcus Notaro (left), Sal Ercolano, Proprietor, The Butcher Shop, and Antinori Director of Luxury Accounts and Education-West Silvio Di Silvio years or more."

The meal concluded with a trio dessert plate. Passion Fruit Crème Brûlée delivered a tangy citrus brightness beneath a caramelized sugar crust. Two profiteroles filled with vanilla bean custard and dipped in dark chocolate brought a creamy indulgence, while a piece of almond brittle added crunch. It was especially memorable to enjoy this course alongside Ptolemy, a rare late harvest Sauvignon Blanc. Ptolemy is picked two months after Aveta at 40 brix versus 22, allowing a healthy mold to draw out the moisture. When pressed, only a trickle of juice is extracted. One barrel, just 24 cases, is made annually, making the Ptolemy pour, a special treat for guests, as it is not available for retail.

SPRING BLOSSOMS WITH STYLE AND COMPASSION AT CHILDHHELP'S 39TH ANNUAL FASHION SHOW AND LUNCHEON

A blend of fashion, philanthropy, and heartfelt impact took center stage at the Balboa Bay Club, as the Orange County Chapter of Childhelp hosted its 39th annual "For the Love of a Child" Fashion Show and Luncheon.

With the picturesque harbor as a backdrop, the day sparkled from start to finish, beginning with a champagne reception and tray-passed hors d'oeuvres and culminating in a dazzling fashion show presented by South Coast Plaza.

Organized by dedicated Co-Chairs Katherine Meredith and Diana Miner, alongside Honorary Chair Patti Edwards, the annual spring fundraiser was nothing short of spectacular, raising over $625,000 to benefit Childhelp's vital programs for abused and neglected children. The room buzzed with anticipation as more than 290 guests gathered in support of a cause that continues to touch lives across Orange County and beyond.

Support poured in from all corners of the philanthropic community, with notable Stardust Donors including Jacquie and Michael Casey and Madeline Gussman, Diamond Donor Olivia Abel, and Emerald Donors such as The Argyros Foundation, The Crean Foundation, Patti Edwards, Deborah Drucker Nesbit, and Nancy Youngman. Platinum and Gold level donors contributed generously, creating a wave of goodwill that promises to have a lasting impact on Childhelp's programs, including its three group homes in Costa Mesa.

The stunningly transformed ballroom was a sea of crisp white florals and elegant décor, setting the perfect stage for what was to come.

Orange County Chapter President Julie Thornton Adams welcomed guests with warm remarks, and soon after, the fashion show burst to life. Curated by the talented Shannon Davidson and her team, the runway dazzled with spring looks from Bally, Balmain, Camilla, Lanvin, Missoni, Monique Lhuillier, and Saks Fifth Avenue, each looking more breathtaking than the last.

As guests took in the show, they also enjoyed a luxurious three-course luncheon featuring a duet of filet mignon and sea bass, prepared with the care and flair that befits such a special occasion. The table favors, provided by Läderach Chocolatier, added a sweet touch to the elegant afternoon.

One of the most moving moments of the day came when Honorary Chair Patti Edwards presented the 2025 Inspirational Award to Roosevelt Rawls, Childhelp Youth Ambassador. At just 18, Roosevelt has become a national voice for child advocacy, having delivered the Speak Up and Be Safe Prevention Education Curriculum at over 175 school assemblies in 26 states, reaching more than 200,000 students, teachers, and parents. Her passion and dedication inspired a standing ovation, reminding all in attendance of the event's deeper purpose.

Adding to the excitement were enticing opportunity drawing prizes, including coveted handbags by YSL, Valentino, and Balmain; a Dine Around package featuring top OC restaurants; a luxurious getaway at the Balboa Bay Resort; and a grand prize valued at over $2,500, a South Coast Plaza shopping spree complete with an ACCESS card and yearlong valet parking pass.

Behind the scenes, the event's success was driven by the tireless work of volunteers and committee members who poured their hearts into every detail. Among them were Tracy Abel, Kitty Canada, Terri Carlson, Becky Cooper, Mary Allyn Dexter, Joy Estrada, Patricia Ford, Shanen Foye, Jenny Golden, Pam Pharris, Joyce Simon, Tami Smith, Gina Van Ocker, Debra Violette, Ellen Walker, and Michele Wischmeyer.

Childhelp's mission continues to be one of hope and healing. With 85 cents of every dollar going directly toward services, donors and attendees can take comfort in knowing their contributions are making a tangible difference in the lives of children who need it most.

As the afternoon drew to a close and guests bid farewell to the bay, the spirit of the event lingered, a beautiful reminder that when fashion meets purpose, the results can be truly life-changing. For more information or to get involved, visit www.childhelp.org.

Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half!- Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper .The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads.I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."

SEVERAL LOVING GERMAN SHEPHERDS ARE AVAILABLE FOR ADOPTION

Big Bunny

Amelia

Melony

Are you a German Shepherd lover or have considered adding this magnificent dog to your family? Now may be the perfect time!

At the Mission Viejo Animal Services Center, 14 German Shepherds and German Shepherd mixes are waiting for their forever homes. Each of these beautiful dogs is unique with distinctive coats and personalities that could be perfect for you and your family.

The mix includes young, energetic shepherds that would make great hiking companions for active households as well as sweet senior dogs simply seeking a relaxing, loving environment to enjoy their golden years. The shepherds also include two pairs of sisters Amelia and Sawyer and Teddy Bear and Big Bunny – each looking to find a home together.

German Shepherds have been around since the late 19th century and were initially bred as herding dogs due to their intelligence, strength, and trainability. Over the years, they have developed into excellent family pets known for their loyalty and protective nature, making them one of the most popular dog breeds.

If you're ready to welcome one of these devoted and regal canines into your family, visit 28095 Hillcrest, where you can adopt a shepherd for only $20 thanks to DAWG, which is sponsoring the adoptions.
